

'I Voice' at Indira institute

A majestic inauguration of the unique conception - 'I Voice', was held at the Indira Group of Institutes, on Thursday, February 25th, at noon. 'I Voice', which aims at providing a platform for all the 'Indiraite's' to voice their views and thoughts, was inaugurated at the hands of the Tarita Shankar - the chairperson of IGI and Chetan Wakalkar - the group director of IGI. Shankar in her speech said, "This platform has been specially created for every member of the Indira family to freely voice his /her opinion on any subject." Wakalkar, among other things, stated, "Just as Sachin Tendulkar has scaled heights in cricket, every youngster can reach the pinnacle in his/her respective field."